

Please do not adopt anything that takes away from Indiana's "No Call" listings. This has proven to be very effective for us and has decreased our calls from several a day sometimes to just an occasional interruption of our home life and our privacy. We pay for our phones and appreciate using them the way that we want, instead of inconsiderate interruptions.